Capt. Simpson Sligh died at his home near Jalapa on Friday the 8th inst. Capt. Sligh was one of our best and most substantial citizens.

We are pained to chronicle the death of P. C. Henderson, youngest son of Thomas Henderson. This sad event occurred on the 8th inst. at Baltimore, Md. Mr. Henderson was attending his first course of lectures in the Medral College at Baltimore. His re-Bart. Caldwell and were interred on

Died at the Crotwell Hotel, on Sunday morning, Feb. 10th 1884, John T. Stowers, aged 26 years and 10 months. Mr. Stowers was the Manager of the Singer Manufacturing Company, for Newberry, and adjoining counties. He was a gentleman of great business capacity, and possessed the entire confidence of the company. He was from Atlanta, Ga., where his parents live, and to which place his remains were taken on Monday for interment. He had made many and warm friends while with us, whose hearts will go out in the warmest feelings of sympathy to his bereaved family. He died with congestion of the brain brought on by rheumatism. The Rev. H. C. Fennel will preach at Smyrna Church, the fourth Saturday and Sunday in February.

When Winburn came to Newberry he did not expect to stay but a short while, and he is here yet, but will move soon, come and be taken.

New Opening.

We invite attention to the advertisement of W. T. Gafford. He is a practical Harness and Saddle maker and repairer, and guarantees good work and fair prices. Give him a trial.

Mr. W. H. Hobbs, a brother of Mr. J. Hobbs was killed on Thursday morn ing last by being crushed between two cars at the Greenville R. R. depot, Columbia, which he was in the act of coupling. He had been in the employ of the road for some time.

A Japanese Tea Party.

The ladies of the Episcopal Church will give a Japanese Tea Party at the Temperance Hall to-morrow (Friday) evening, for the benefit of their church, Japanese tea in Japanese cups and saucers-at American prices. In addition to the many good things usually served at hot suppers, there will be an art gallery, and many other novel features, including the Japs themselves, You will learn more about it at the Hall to-morrow evening.

The Wizard Oil,

Is upon the lips of every man, woman and child, and it goes down the throats of men, women and children, and beside it is rubbed on and into every ache, pain and trouble known to or experienced by the men, women and children of Newberry. It is a wonderful specific, good for every-body, and good for everything. Pad-dy Murphy's Bagpipe never drew such tones as the wizard instruments draw, and the way they handle the "drones," just melts the heart of ever stone in the community. Crowds follow them, dollars are gathered into their bag. Our old friend Z. W. says he will buy it by the gallon, that it has lifted from his shoulders twenty-years of life and trouble. We cannot tell one half of what it does, what is said about it, or how many millions there

County Politics.

Our County slate-makers are already busy, and the likelihood is that the po-litical file will soon be lively. We have heard that the following persons will be candidates: Senate: Rev. J. A. Sligh, J. C. Wil-

Time to Stop.

It's too bad, Sir or Madam, but don't get frightened. Your hair is falling off-that's certain. A glance in the mirror, or an investigating committee of fingers tell the dismal story. We won't discuss the possible cause. It is enough that Parker's Hair Balsam used now will prevent further destruction. Is your hair somewhat gray too, and crisp? Alas, yes. The Balsam will give back the original color, softness and gloss. Not a dye, not oily, elegantly perfumed, a perfect Feb. 1-lm.

One Hundred.

The rapid and large increase of pumust be gratifying to the accom-plished Principal, and to the Board of Trustees. We learn that the number now exceeds one hundred, and this increase is evidence of two things, first the esteem in which as a teacher the Capt. is held, and secondly a larger and deeper interest in the cause of education. The training and education of our girls cannot be too highly considered. Capt. Pifer is worthy the confidence shown him, and we have just cause for pride when we look at the fine and large school now in such successful operation.

A CHEROKEE REMEDY.

WHAT A PROMINENT DRUGGIST SAYS.—T. F. Fleming, of Augusta, Ga., writes: "When I first heard of your Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein' I thought I would order a dozen. In less than a week I ordered a gross, and in less than seven weeks, as your books will show, had ordered seven gross. I only mention to you this fact to show how it sells in this city. As a Cough remedy I have never seen its equal. One bottle sold makes a customer of it." Tramp Killed.

As the South bound train on the C. & G. R. R. was nearing a sharp curve on the road between Chappell's and Saluda a man was discovered on the track. The train was too near to be stopped in time, and the man made no effort to leave the track or get out of the way. As a consequence he was killed instantly. One who saw him afterward says the body looked as if every bone in it had been broken. He was a tramp who had been about town convince you that it is a good remedy. here Saturday and gave his name as Hayes, said he was from Georgia, and had walked all the way to Columbia, S. C. to see a Penitentiary. He had always wanted to see one before he died. He was evidently a crank, his actions here so impressed every one.

Ed Greneker and his Velos.

On Saturday afternoon, the week's work done, jobs all distributed, proofs of next week's work taken, sticks laid on their stands, hands paid off, Ed said, pa, I believe I will wheel it out to Mr. Sligh's." Such a proposition startled us, we thought it impracticable, but not so, Ed, he is made up of the stuff which knows no fail; he bade us good bye and started. We expected to see him back again in some good man's buggy, with the wreck of his machine packed in the bottom. Our fears were groundless. He returned Sunday afternoon, right side up with care, having made the distance, seven miles, in one hour and a half's time. When the condition of the roads are considered, and the time taken in walking over bad places, we think that he made good time. This is the first trip of that distance ever made by an amateur bicyclist in Newberry, and we consider it worthy of mentioa.

The concert was indeed the best ever rendered in Newberry, and tracts to build a bridge; the other in the gentlemen making up this troupe are generally and individually artists in instrumental and vocal music.

The past week was indeed the most Mr. Burt in his character impersonation, particularly as Aunt Betsy was "consoling" to us he or she hoped to to be to "Miss Cornelia." As Farmer Magee he is unapproachable and laugh-ter exciting. Childs in his character songs, as were all the others, displayed equal talent and vocal power. We have never heard "Rocked in the cradle of the deep" so well rendered as on this occasion. Take this concert in its entirety we were never better pleased, and we do hope that it will be repeated in the near future. A Pleasant Voice.

For February 1. 's a number replete with valuable matter for the husbandman. As usual in this old and practical farm journal, the reports of pro gressive farmers' clubs are a conspicuous part of its contents, and the experiences of skillful and successful agriculturists are thus passed around to thousands of readers. The subject of fertilizers and manures is also a conspicuous topic, as are live stock, the dairy, fruit-growing, poultry raising, bee-keeping, etc. An attractive portion of the paper is the Home Department, in which the ladies of the farm nousehold always find something pleasing and instructive. A new contribution to the Farmer is announced in this number, Dr. B. Puryear, Professor of Chemistry in the Richmond, Va., College, one of the most lucid and practical writers on agricultural topics in the South, who begins a series of articles on topics of very day interest, and with the apolication thereto of scientific principles. Another distinguished writer is the associate editor, Dr. Thos. Pollard, excommissioner of Agriculture of Vir- markets where I purchased an elegant ginia, who in this number treats on Stock of

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE for February con tains an excellent collection of timely and in-teresting papers from the foreign magazines. Goldwin Smith's essay on "Evolutionary Ethics and Christianity," from the Contemporary Review, is a powerful presentation of the sub-ject, and commanded the place of honor in the msgazine. Another article from the same review, by A. Lang, discusses "Literary Forgeries" A paper from the Edinburg Review, on "The Ancient, Medieval, and Modern Stage," will be found full of interest. The mechanic can take the material worth $5, and make it into a watch worth $100. That's skill. The merchant can take an article worth twenty-five cents and sell it for a dollar. That's leaves the interest will be felt in the article worth worth the composer and pinnist, "Moscueles." There is a Chinese story from Blackwood's "A Matrimonial Fraud," which is fresh and piquant. Considerable interest will be felt in the article on "Outcast Russia," by the Nihilist, Prince Krapotkine. There are poems by Kennell Rodd on "Outcast Russia," by the Millist, Frace Krapotkine. There are poems by Kennell Rodd and Montgomerie Ranking, and several short papers of interest. "A Great Religious Refor-mer," by Prof. Max Muller, will also be read with much interest. The number is fully up to, if not superior to its predecessors.

for their patronage, believing that so long as the people patronize him they show their appreciation of him as a mer-to be found at FLYNN'S entitles him to a front seat in the mercantile sphere, and in order to retain this position, and still merit the confidence and patronage of the people of Newberry and surroundings, he

THE LOW PRICES

in this announcement to lead the town in LOW PRICES during the present year as in the past.

THIS PRESENTATION

is not intended for an extremely fancy or acrobatic advertisement, but it means STRICTLY BUSINESS, and if you would take care of Number One, go where you can get the most goods for the least money, to your own interest, and bear in mind that the same fair and honorable dealing which characterized FLYNN'S transactions of the year just closed, will be observed by him upon the year we are just entering. His constant aim has been to sell the people good, and reliable goods,

THEREFORE LOOK

THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES.

And if success is the measure by which to judge, he feels that he can justly claim it, as his business has increased remarkably since his appearance in Newberry.

And in this connection, it may not be improper to remind my patrons that I have on hand Ladies' Cloaks, and Walking Jackets 25 per cent less than New York cost. Ready made Clothing regardless of cost.

A number of heavy over coats, regular prices from $11.00 to $18.00 now $8.50 to $14.00.
In fact it will pay you to call on FLYNN first.
